The New York Botanical Garden's Holiday

Train Show celebrates its 27th anniversary this year, and as always it's one of New York City's top seasonal attractions. Electric trains go whizzing by more than 140 NYC landmarks made out of acorns, twigs, bark, berries and leaves.

This is truly a quintessential New York holiday experience. Where else can you marvel at detailed miniature replicas of the Statue of Liberty, Yankee Stadium and other iconic NYC spots made entirely from natural materials? The trains weave in and out of these little landmarks, through tunnels, over bridges and even through waterfalls. It's a magical sight that grown-ups enjoy just as much as kids. Don't Miss The New York Botanical Garden's Holiday Train Show. It is a one-of-a-kind experience.
