Experience Long Island, NY Saturday, August 24, 2019 $125.00 per person

Long Island is an area of New York that offers diverse culture, great food, and an incredible history. The trip begins with a ferry ride from

New London to Orient Point where we will meet our educated guide who will encompass Mattituck, Southampton, East Hampton and more. This tour includes stops at Southampton Village as well as Main Beach East Hampton for a viewing of hidden neighborhoods of the rich and famous. You will also enjoy a visit to the Ladies Village Improvement Society - best thrift store in the Hampton with fine clothes and other objects or explore East Hampton Village.

We will take a ferry from Sag Harbor to Shelter Island and then again from Shelter Island to Greenport. At the end of the day we will arrive in Orient Point for the ferry back to New London. Join us on this tour and get a unique look into what makes Long Island special. It is very important to be at your pick up on time. The ferry leaves New London at 9:00 am and will not wait if we are late. The ferry ride from New London to Orient Point is 1 hour and 20 min.

There is a full service deli on the ferry serving breakfast, lunch, snacks and beverages. Lunch will be on your own in Southampton Village. The return time to the Hartford Area could change according to the ferry schedule. We will make every attempt to be back on time.
